

Tried to Save Dog, Lost Foot

Edward Beale, aged 55 years, of Weno-nah, lost a foot yesterday as the result, it is said, of attempting to save a pet dog from going beneath a train at Woodbury late Tuesday night. The foot was so badly crushed that he was sent to the Cooper Hospital, Camden, where amputation was found necessary.

Lost Foot Attempting to Save a Pet Dog

Clipped By:

bob_thomas_wk
Thu, Sep 16, 2021