ESTABLISHED 1875. CAMDEN, N. J., MONDAY, DECEMBER 8, 1884. PRICE ONE CENT.

SATURDAY'S BIG STORM

Rushing Waters Flow and Mighty Winds Blow.

HEAVIEST STORM IN YEARS. Homes Blown Down, Streets and Pavements Covered, Highways Struck With Work.

Not since the memorable October storm of 1871 has so much damage been done in this section by wind and rain as in the storm of Saturday night. The rain fell almost a hurricane. Trees were blown down or stripped of leaves. Signs and awnings were blown through the streets. Men were drenched with rain, and the streets, which had been so clean and bright, were covered with mud and debris. The damage to property was enormous. Many houses were blown down, and streets and pavements were covered with wreckage. The storm was the heaviest in years.

RAILROAD CHANGES

A SERIES OF SPECIAL PROVISIONS ON THE PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD. The Pennsylvania Railroad Company, to control the line between Philadelphia and Camden, has made several changes in its schedule. These changes are designed to facilitate the travel of passengers and the shipment of freight. The new schedule will be in effect on Monday, December 10th.

COACHES CRUSHED

A HORNY-MOUNTING ENGINE WALKS INTO TWO PASSENGER COACHES. A serious accident occurred on the Camden and Philadelphia line, on Saturday afternoon. A heavy engine, while passing a curve, ran over two passenger coaches. The engine was thrown off its rails, and the coaches were crushed. Several persons were injured, and property was damaged. The cause of the accident is being investigated.

MILITARY MATTERS

NO DECOMMISSION.

Commander Wash Makes a Plea for a Prisoner.

WHICH THE COURT BESTES.

The Court has just rendered its decision in the case of Commander Wash. The court has decided that Wash should not be decommissioned, but should remain a prisoner. This decision is a great relief to Wash and his family. The court's decision is based on the fact that Wash was not guilty of the charges against him.

FINISHED AT LAST

THE CAPTURE OF THE WASHINGTON. The Washington, a privateer, has been captured by the United States Navy. The ship was found in the waters off the coast of New Jersey. The crew of the ship has been taken on board the USS Albatross, and the ship has been brought to Philadelphia. The capture of the Washington is a great victory for the United States Navy.

THE NEW A. M. CHURCH

NO JUSTICE IN THIS!

An Innocent Woman in Prison for Larceny.

RELEASED AND PROVEN INNOCENT BY A VINDICTIVE MAN CAUSING HER TO BE RE-ARRESTED.

The case of the innocent woman in prison for larceny is a great injustice. She was arrested and imprisoned for a crime she did not commit. She was released and proven innocent, but she was re-arrested and imprisoned again. This is a great wrong, and it should be corrected. The law should protect the innocent and punish the guilty.
