

WENONAH

Special to The Inquirer.

WENONAH, July 7.—The Inn is now entertaining nearly a hundred guests, all of whom are delighted with the management of Mr. Lewis.

W. J. McCowan and family have gone down to Atlantic City for a short stay.

Miss Maude Pearson has returned from a visit to Flemington friends. She is now entertaining Miss Jane Davis, of Germantown.

J. R. Ballinger left this morning for a six weeks' trip to Europe.

Miss Hattie Bradford, of Newport, has gone to her home, after a pleasant stay at the residence of John Colbert.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Bossler have been down to Atlantic part of the week.

The committee in charge of the Fourth of July celebration is receiving congratulations on all sides for the success of the day's program. The good music in the park was a feature, and it has been suggested that the band be engaged for two or three concerts in the Inn Park through the season.

Wenonah 1900 Independence Day

Clipped By:

bob_thomas_wk
Fri, Sep 25, 2020